

Dr. Glenn Neil Love Medical Scholarship
2019 Guidelines

Scholarship Information

The mission of the Dr. Glenn Neil Love Medical Scholarship Fund, established in memory of Dr. Glenn Neil Love by his family and friends in 2014, is to provide annual scholarship awards to assist qualified recipients who desire to advance their skills through medical training programs and/or education in a medical field.

Preference will be given to eligible recipients currently working in a medical field with the desire to increase their skills through additional educational programs and/or those individuals with proven work experience in a medical field seeking to achieve entry level skills through the achievement of special certificate and training programs.

Eligibility Criteria: Applicants must meet the following eligible criteria in order to submit an application for consideration:

- Received a minimum of a high school diploma or equivalent;
- Completed at least one year of employment in a medical field and be currently working in a medical field;
- Can demonstrate or show evidence of financial need.
- Have applied to and been accepted in an accredited certificate, training program or technical college and provide acceptance documents.

Application Requirements

1. A completed online scholarship application.

Selection of Recipients

The Scholarship Advisory Committee shall select recipients (subject to approval by the Community Foundation of the Lowcountry Board of Directors). Scholarship funds will be awarded to cover educational costs for: tuition/fees, room and board, and books. Specific costs to be covered will be at the discretion of the Scholarship Advisory Committee. Scholarships are awarded without regard to race, sex, religion, age, or national origin.

Announcement of Scholarship Awards

The Community Foundation of the Lowcountry will send an official award letter and related information to each recipient. A public announcement of scholarship recipients may be arranged by the Community Foundation of the Lowcountry. Recipients may be further recognized through Awards Day programs at their schools.

Distribution of Scholarship Funds

The Community Foundation will advise all scholarship recipients of the distribution method of scholarship awards and review the students' responsibilities to the Scholarship Program they have been selected for. These responsibilities may include sending transcripts at the end of the year for renewable scholarships, and providing notification of all address changes or changes in student status or enrollment. In accordance with the Community Foundation's policy, scholarship funds will be paid in the form of a check made payable to the specialized program provider, technical school or college of the scholarship recipient. Checks will be mailed to the program/college/school. Notification of payment will be sent to the scholarship recipient.
